High-Risk Contacts are defined as asymptomatic individuals who are known to have been in contact with a Confirmed or Probable case and do not include outbreak-related cases in Long Term Care Home (LTCH). Probable Cases (as of May 25) are individuals who are a symptomatic close contact of a confirmed case and whose lab results are not available (refused testing or not able to get tested) or inconclusive, and do not include outbreak-related cases in LTCH. Resolved excludes individuals who died and is defined as cases reported as recovered in iPHIS and cases who are not currently listed as hospitalized in iPHIS, those who are 14 days past symptom onset (if present) or 14 days past the episode date if the case is closed. Resolved is not based on two negative tests for clearance. †Deaths among probable cases are included in cumulative deaths but not included in the confirmed case counts. *Confirmed deaths includes confirmed cases where COVID-19 is believed to be the cause of death. Note that data in report may differ from previous reports due to routine data cleaning.
